

PEACHCOURT

eFiling has arrived, Georgia.

A few things you need to know:

What can I efile?

You can initiate and file into General Civil and Domestic Relations cases.

Is this for new or existing cases?

Both! You can initiate a new case or file into any open case, even those that were not initiated through PeachCourt.

What does it cost?

Submitting an eFiling via PeachCourt costs $5 per transaction. Each transaction can include an unlimited number of documents in the same case.

How and when do I pay?

You pay all fees when you submit your filing. Pay with Visa, Mastercard or bank draft (new!).

When can I efile?

No more rushing to the courthouse to file by 5:00 PM! PeachCourt is open 24/7.

How do I get stamped copies?

The first page of each PDF you upload gets stamped and PeachCourt returns the entire document to you.

Does PeachCourt allow eService?

Yes! For $3, PeachCourt can email file stamped copies of each document to any number of service recipients.

Can I get a new filing alert?

Yes! When any eFiled or paper proceeding is added to the case docket, PeachCourt will alert you via email that the docket has changed.

Do all parties have to efile?

No! It's up to each attorney. If opposing counsel chooses to file on paper, you can still eFile!

Where can I efile?

New courts open frequently. Visit peachcourt.com to see the list!

No more typewriters! PeachCourt completes these forms for you:

Case Initiation Form, Summons and Sheriff's Entry of Service
